Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.

BIOGRAPHY

NANCI LUNA JIMÉNEZ, CPF

Nanci Luna Jiménez is regionally, nationally, and internationally recognized for her highly effective and insightful trainings, inclusive facilitation, and dynamic speaking for groups of diverse ages, industries, and cultural backgrounds. In 1994, she founded the Luna Jiménez Institute for Social Transformation (then known as Luna Jiménez Seminars & Associates) to deliver unique programs that guide individual healing and transformation, cultivate initiative and leadership in social change, and create more just and equitable workplaces and communities.

A Certified Professional Facilitator® since 2006, Nanci facilitates individuals and groups in understanding how systemic oppression affects their lives, their work, and their relationships with others, then supports them to envision and make revolutionary changes through personal healing, cross-cultural communication, group consensus, organizational inclusion, and short- and long-term strategic and action planning.

Nanci’s unique approach to diversity, inclusion, and social justice continues the legacy of work first started by Dr. Erica “Ricky” Sherover-Marcuse, who coined the term “unlearning racism,” and then carried on by recognized cross-cultural communication specialist Lillian Roybal Rose, M.Ed. Their approaches encourage participants to recognize the value of their own heritage and to foster common understanding with others as a means of building alliances and working for social justice. Nanci uniquely combines this training along with methodologies developed by the Institute for Cultural Affairs \(ICA\), an international organization that trains people to lead participatory processes for more sustained organizational and social change.

Of Puerto Rican and Chicana heritage, Nanci was born in Detroit, Michigan, and was raised there and in Tucson, Arizona. She currently lives in Portland, Oregon.

CORE TEACHINGS

Systems and institutions are made up of humans and in order to change systems, we must change humans.

We believe we can transform society by providing people with the tools to heal from oppression and to build relationships based on trust and understanding.

WE CAN COMPLETELY HEAL FROM THE EFFECTS OF OPPRESSION

AUTHENTIC RELATIONSHIPS ARE ACTS OF REVOLUTION

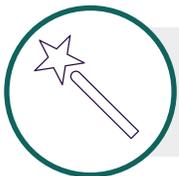

LISTENING IS THE MOST POWERFUL POLITICAL TOOL

ADULTISM IS THE TRAINING GROUND FOR ALL OTHER OPPRESSIONS

BLAMING PEOPLE FOR ACTING OUT THE EFFECTS OF OPPRESSION IS OPPRESSION

ALL HUMAN BEINGS ARE GOOD BY NATURE

WE CURRENTLY HAVE ACCESS TO ALL THE TOOLS WE NEED TO END OPPRESSION

ALL PEOPLE ARE DEMEANED AND DEVALUED BY INSTITUTIONAL OPPRESSION

“ History, despite its wrenching pain, cannot be un-lived, but if faced with courage, need not be lived again.”

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

JUST RELATIONSHIPS: A Framework to Work Through Discomfort and Reach for Understanding

Length: 90-Minutes Location: Webinar

Have you struggled to listen to (let alone understand) someone who disagrees with you, how you think, or how you live your life? Do you find yourself unfriending people in your social networks or cutting off relationships because of beliefs? How much does your circle of friends and colleagues reflect a wide array of diversity? You are not alone. In a world that offers few resources for valuing relationships more than being “right” and in a society that doesn’t encourage relationship building or acknowledge that understanding across dominance is key to creating true social change, we tend to retreat and protect. And we all lose. During this session you will learn how fear and power imbalances impact our capacity to communicate and connect with people different from us, and what it means to remain “value-based” in your actions even in the face of conflict, disagreement, and dominance.

“

If you have come here to help me, you are wasting your time. But if you have come because your liberation is bound up with mine, then let us work together.”
