

HOST | CO-HOST | ATTEND COMPARISON

LJIST's Virtual Workshops are designed to maximize 9 hours of live workshop content with 3+ hours of asynchronous, pre-work learning. Our Virtual Workshops take place over 3 consecutive days for 3 hours each day (plus 30-60 minutes of homework on Days 1 & 2). There are three options to experience a LJIST Virtual Workshop, each tailored to meet different needs. Below is a comparison of the benefits, potential challenges, and requirements.

	Host a private workshop for your organization.	Co-host a workshop allowing your partners and the LJIST community to fill half the spaces.	Attend a scheduled public or co-hosted workshop on the LJIST calendar.
BEST FOR	Medium & Large Organizations	Small & Medium Organizations	Individuals & Organizations
WHO WOULD CHOSE THIS OPTION?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have at least 32 people who would attend this workshop. Your organization is ready to do deeper work. You want to apply workshop learning to internal organizational dynamics without external stakeholders, partners or other participants. You want to select dates that are convenient for you. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have at least 16 people who would attend this workshop. Participants who would attend are ready to go deeper. Your organization is pretty homogeneous and could benefit from greater diversity at a workshop. You want to make this experience available to external stakeholders and partners but cannot cover their expense. You are able to schedule a date that is at least 6 months out. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are an individual or small group and ready to do deeper work. Your organization has less than 16 people who would attend this workshop. You and/or a small team from your organization want to experience a LJIST Virtual Workshop before deciding to bring the offering internal to your organization. Your timing is flexible and can wait until a public offering is available.
